Dear _____

This refers to your application for a Canadian work permit. According to Canada's Immigration and Refugee Protection Act and Regulations, as an applicant for a work permit, you must establish that you meet all of the requirements of Part 11 of the Regulations. You must satisfy an officer that you will not contravene the conditions of admission and that you do not belong to a category of persons inadmissible to Canada under the Act. You must also satisfy an officer that your intentions are bona fide and that you will leave Canada by the end of the period authorized for your stay.

Based on a careful review of the information contained in your application and all of the documentation which you have provided in support of your application, I am not satisfied that you meet the requirements of the Act and the Regulations. I am therefore refusing your application.

Subsection 11(1) of the Act states that "a foreign national must, before entering Canada, apply to an officer for a visa or for any other document required by the Regulations. The visa or document shall be issued if, following an examination, the officer is satisfied that the foreign national is not inadmissible and meets the requirements of the Act." Subsection 2(2) stipulates that unless otherwise indicated, references in the Act to "the Act" include regulations made under it.

This application is closed. Please note that any new information you wish to provide must be submitted with a new application and processing fee.
